Welcome to Boho Zone

Boho Zone is well established as being the home of the Tees Valley's digital technology cluster.

Being part of Boho offers something unique for your business - a community spirit like no other with dynamic spaces that enable you to create - whatever that looks like.

Incredible things happen when you choose Boho. Will you be next?

Spread across Middlesbrough's growing Middlehaven district, the buildings within Boho Zone offer dynamic office space built with collaboration, deal-flow and knowledge transfer in mind and a range of facilities and benefits.

Our offices have provided a catalyst for tenants past and present to grow and nurture their craft. They've developed digital advancements that are changing the way we see the world. And it's all happening right here in the heart of Middlesbrough. Get in touch and see what Boho can do for your business.

From graduate start-ups and businesses that began life in spare bedrooms, to established firms looking for 'a place to call home', time and time again Boho has provided the perfect base and springboard for creative ideas to flourish.

Choose from a range of office spaces and facilities to suit the needs of your company, all located within an easily accessible location in the heart of Middlesbrough.

Middlesbrough Council manages Boho Zone and can discuss competitive rates and connect you with key networks and contacts from Teesside University's support programmes as well as Middlesbrough's wider business district.

It's a community. A neighbourhood. A home from home. A place to develop the next big thing - what are you waiting for?

Are you ready to be part of the success story?

A world of opportunities...

With a base at Boho, your company can go further than you imagined.

But don't just take our word for it. See what our tenants past and present say:

“ If the Boho offices hadn't existed, we would have moved out of Middlesbrough, but they kept us here and now we're big enough to stay. ”

Big Bite

“ Everyone knows Boho - you're part of something big here. The potential for anyone wanting to move into Boho is enormous - the world is your oyster. ”

Calm Digital

“ At Boho, we have found a place where we can really thrive. We love the people here - you're always collaborating and there is a really good network of creative companies, who all want to help each other. ”
